NEWPORT,

BY CHANSTON & NORMAN,
144 THAMES STREET.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 11, 1855.

YOUNG, two boys about 15 or 16 years of age, of steady habits, to learn the printing business; apply immediately at the Daily News office.

Our readers will not forget that the Concert of Miss Hensler takes place at the Ocean Hall, on Monday at twelve o'clock. The young and lovely cantatrice will be assisted by her sister; by Otto Dressel, the distinguished pianist, perhaps the best interpreter of Chopin in the country—and by Messrs. Bergmann, Schulze, and others, of the Germania Society. The selection of music is very choice, including the best Italian and German composers. Those of our readers who recall the entirely successful debut of Miss Hensler at the Academy of Music in New York will be glad to hear once more her full, fresh, sweet and sympathetic voice, which has already received, while she was only a student, that foreign applause, which, however flattering, is no longer necessary to success among us, on Monday at 12 o'clock.

THE announcement of a Concert on Wednesday next by the youthful Prima Donna, Mad'le Adelina Patti, has caused quite an excitement among the musical Dilatanti now sojourning in Newport, if we may judge from the numerous communications which we have received in her behalf. We learn that Signor Barrilli is a very accomplished artist, and gained an enviable reputation by his singing of the difficult Role for Bartolone, in Verdi's Opera "Rigoletto," at the Academy of Music in New York. We shall have something more to say about the other artists in a few days.

UP! It would be a great accommodation to many of the visitors if the Pastors of the different churches would inform us on Friday when their pulpits will be supplied by visiting clergymen, as many would like to hear those from abroad who happen to be here. If the clergy of Newport will give us this information we will publish it with pleasure.

Rev. Dr. Achilli will preach at the Central Baptist church to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, services commencing at 3 o'clock; and in the evening at the Rev. Mr. Adlam's church on Spring street, at 7-1/2 o'clock; subject for the evening, The New Christian Church of Italy.

UP! The Rev. James C. Richmond will preach at Zion Church to-morrow.

UP! We see that Judge Joslen has employed Mr. John Henry Tilley as a clerk in the Post Office; Mr. Tilley has had experience in the business, having formerly been clerk in the office. He is an honest and accommodating young man, and will give general satisfaction.

UP! Miss Eliza Hensler, the celebrated American Prima Donna, will give a Matinee Musicale at the Ocean House, Monday morning.

UP! There will be a Hop at the Atlantic House Monday evening.

UP! The proprietors of the Hotels are stowing people away in every nook and corner; the city is now full of visitors.

UP! Among the distinguished visitors in the city we notice Moses H. Grinnell, Esq., and Simeon Draper, Esq., of New York.

UP! President Pierce and wife left Washington yesterday for the North.

UP! Ex-President Fillmore, at the last advices, was in Ireland.

UP! Among the visitors in the city we notice Bishop Eastburn, of Massachusetts.

A few evenings since, just at dark, two young gentlemen who were bathing in Miami River, at Dayton, Ohio, perceived a camp running off with their clothes.—They swam ashore and gave chase, but without success—and they were compelled to take themselves to equatorial sports until the evening was far enough advanced to enable them to gain their boarding house unperceived. This feat they accomplished about midnight, after some unpleasant encounters with mosquitoes and dogs.

It is said that Col. Steptoe did not decline, as stated, the Governorship of Utah Territory. He has informed the Administration at Washington that he will act Governor, provided that when his term is out or he is displaced, he shall be reinstated in the army. He is now awaiting the reply of the President at Carson Valley. On receiving the reply, if favorable, Col. Steptoe will immediately return to Salt Lake and assume the administration of the government.

A young lady was recently cured of palpitation of the heart by a young M. D., in the most natural way imaginable. He held one of her hands in his, put his arm around her waist, and whispered something in her left ear.

NEW PUBLICATIONS:

MARY LYNDON, or, Revelations of a Life: An Autobiography. New York: Springer & Townsend. 1855.

This is a very remarkable book, and will probably create as much sensation as Jane Eyre did, some few years ago. It is said to be the production of Mrs. Nichols, who belongs to the strong-minded class of women. It is well written, and cannot fail to please the reader, as a literary production. But the doctrines we cannot endorse, for if carried out, as the author would have them, they would be subversive of all the present organizations of domestic and social life.

For sale by C. E. Hammett, Jr. and A. J. Ward.

MODERN MYSTERIES EXPLAINED AND EXPOSED.—By Rev. A. Mahan. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co. 1855.

This work is divided into four parts,—Clairvoyant Revelations of A. J. Davis—Phenomena of Spiritualism explained and exposed—Evidence that the Bible is given by inspiration of the spirit of God, as compared with the evidence that these manifestations are from the spirit of man—Clairvoyant revelations of Emanuel Swedenborg. The book is written with great care, and the subjects discussed with much candor and ability. All believers in spiritualism, &c., should read it.

For sale by C. E. Hammett, Jr. and A. J. Ward.

DOESTICKS.—What he says. New York: Edward Livermore. 1855.

Our readers have undoubtedly all perused some of the quaint writings of Mortimer Thompson, who writes under the signature of Doesticks. In commendation of this book we have only to say that it is one of the most original that was ever published, and whoever reads it will laugh most moderately. It is profusely illustrated.

For sale by C. E. Hammett, Jr. and A. J. Ward.

RHODE-ISLAND HORSE AND CATTLE EXHIBITION.—We are informed that B. P. Johnson, Esq., of Albany, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address before the Rhode Island Society for the Encouragement of Domestic Industry at Railroad Hall, on the evening of Tuesday, 11th September. Mr. Johnson is widely and favorably known as the Corresponding Secretary of the New York Agricultural Society, as the editor of the voluminous transactions, and as an agricultural orator. We consider the Society as being peculiarly fortunate in obtaining his services for this occasion. We learn that the arrangements for the exhibition are in a forward state; that entries of horses have already commenced; and that every thing thus far promises even a greater degree of success than was originally anticipated by the managers. The trial of the speed of trotting horses on the afternoons of three days is a very interesting and exciting feature, and will probably call together a larger number of spectators than ever visited any similar display. We hope that every citizen of our State who owns valuable animals will add to the interest of the show and to the prosperity of the Society by exhibiting them. Such parties as can conveniently enter their horses at an early day, will undoubtedly confer a favor on the officers by doing so, as they will thus render less oppressive the labor which must necessarily be performed at a later period. We are told that gentlemen from neighboring States, as well as some of our own citizens, who desire to purchase valuable horses, have expressed a determination to wait, for the purpose of embracing the uncommon opportunity which this exhibition will afford for an admirable selection.—Prov. Journal.

MARRIED.

In this city, 10th, by Rev. B. Jackson, Mr. Lucien B. Webster, and Miss Eustice A. Chapman, both of Woodstock, Conn.

An Unbidden Guest.—A marriage ceremony was to have been celebrated a few evenings since—the happy parties a widow of Erin and a young widow of this city. The preparations had been made with much taste, mutual friends invited, the reverend minister in waiting to unite the happy pair in silken bonds. The happy bride had arrayed herself in the purest white her hair adorned with chaplets of orange flowers. The rejoicing bridegroom had appeared with manly pride, conducted his "Quane Bride," as he called her, to the altar; and all was proceeding as gaily as a marriage bell—when a sudden rap at the door startled the company—the door was opened, and there stood a woman, holding a child by each hand. Her appearance indicated that she had not been bilious—and the inquiry was rudely made, "Who do you want?"—She replied promptly, "I want my husband." This reply struck upon the ear of the faithless husband with astounding effect, as he stood revealed as a base traitor to vows which he had taken under circumstances not less imposing than those which surrounded him at the time of which we write. Covered with confusion and dismay he vanished, leaving the unfortunate and wretched bride alone before the altar—who, becoming conscious of her situation, the chalice of pleasure converted into poison, just as it was offered to her lips, took refuge in darkness now made hideous by the circumstances which had just transpired.—The company, with amazement, turned to look on faces still more amazed, left one by one, and last of all the minister, who

Like one who treads alone,
Some banquet hall deserted."moralizing on the degenerate times, wends his way, feelless, to his home. We are not acquainted with the subsequent history of the parties—we would not reveal what further anguish was endured—we would only draw the moral—ladies, look before you leap.—Baltimore Patriot.

DIRECT FROM LIVERPOOL TO CHICAGO.—The bark Arabia, Capt. Polley, arrived at Chicago direct from Liverpool, on the 2d instant, and was to leave on her return voyage on the 6th. After crossing the Atlantic, the Arabia passed into the St. Lawrence, and surrounding its rapids by means of the British Canadian locks and canals entered Lake Ontario, after sailing through which she overcame some three hundred feet descent, in all, of the Niagara river, by the locks of the Welland canal, and entered lake Erie, thence through said lake, the straits and lake of St. Clair, lake Huron and lake Michigan, to Chicago, in the heart of the American continent. At Chicago she is somewhat up in the world, being at an elevation above the level of the sea which overtops the highest pyramid of Egypt. Such are the achievements of science, labor and civilization. "Peace hath her victories, no less renowned than war."—New York Herald, Aug. 7.

PATENTS.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE,
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
WITH THE U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON.

No. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby his applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent; and that withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Investors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as personal trouble, in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Pat. of Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

LUMBER.

THE subscriber having purchased the stock, and leased the wharf of the well known yard for the past forty years, as HAMMETT'S LUMBER YARD, would take this method of informing the public that it will be continued under the same name, and extending the invitation past patrons of the establishment and to all others who may need materials of kinds usually kept at such an establishment to call, assuring such that no pains will be spared to accommodate, and on no liberal terms at any other establishment.

ALBERT & JOHN R. HAMMETT,
Jr.

21 ST. L. E. S.

The subscriber would inform the ladies of Newport that he will receive on Wednesday next, the latest fall styles of Blocks for pressing Straw Bonnets; and having secured the services of two of the most skillful in the city, he is ready to line and trim Straw Bonnets, or make Silk or Velvet Bonnets to order, in the most fashionable style.

P. S.—Straw Bonnets, colored, black or fancy colors, sized and pressed. Don't forget the number, 86. F. H. GREENE.

SOAP! SOAP!

THE subscriber is now prepared to furnish the highly celebrated American Cream, American Laundry, American Manufacturers' Soap, and Cream Soap preparation. These soaps are presented to the public with the fullest confidence in their superiority and utility. A fair trial according to the directions and utility given below, cannot fail to be entirely satisfactory; and an argument more conclusive than pages of certificates and recommendations. A fair trial is all I ask. These soaps do the work of the Laundry in the best manner in cold water, either hot, or salt, or alkali, dispensing entirely with boiling, pounding, washing machines, &c., without injury to the most delicate fibres. In cold weather, both my master is advised to take the suds off the cloth.

The tendency of these soaps is to soften the clothes and loosen the hold of the dirt, without injury.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—White Clothes—Take the soap freely, in all soiled spots, make a strong suds in water sufficient to cover, soak a few hours, or all night if convenient, when with a common brush rubbing and thorough rinsing, they will be perfectly clean and beautifully bleached.

Clothes and other colored articles, wash without soaking and rinse.

Woolens—Wash in warm suds (to prevent shrinking) and rinse.

Merinoes, Silk, Velvets, Silks, Ribbons, &c., Wash in strong suds and rinse.

To take Lamp Oil, Wheel Grease, Grease Spots, &c. out of Carpet, Table Covers, and Clothing, rub the soap on freely, soak some time in strong suds, rub out and rinse. Ink spots and stains, use full strength, soak, and wash in hot water.

Gilding and Mahogany.—Wash in weak suds with silk cloth and rinse. Paint, wash in strong suds.

For all other purposes, use as you do the common bar soap, and you will be compelled to admit that it surpasses all other soaps. Manufactured and for sale wholesale and retail, by C. G. BANDY,
Depot 228 Thames-st.
